

General statement of intent – Modern Slavery

Introduction

This Modern Slavery and Human Trafficking Statement relates to actions and activities during the financial year 1st March 2024 to 31st March 2025.

The statement sets down Wilten Construction Ltd's commitment to preventing slavery and human trafficking in our business activities and the steps we have put in place with the aim of ensuring that there is no slavery or human trafficking in our own business and supply chains. We all have a duty to be alert to risks, however small. Staff are expected to report their concerns and management to act upon them.

Organisational Structure and Supply Chains

This statement covers the business activities of Wilten Construction Ltd which are as follows:

We are a national main contractor and project management provider operating in industrial and commercial sectors including fit-out.

The Company currently operates in the following countries:

- United Kingdom

Training

To ensure a good understanding of the risks of modern slavery and human trafficking in our business and supply chains, the Company requires all employees to attend a short training presentation where the company modern slavery training presentation is delivered within the first 2 months of employment.

Policy

Wilten Construction Ltd is committed to ensuring that there is no modern slavery or human trafficking in our business or our supply chains. This Statement affirms our intention to act ethically in our business relationships.

Due Diligence Processes for Slavery and Human Trafficking

Wilten Construction Ltd undertakes due diligence when considering taking on new suppliers, and regularly reviews its existing suppliers. The Company's due diligence process includes the building of long-standing relationships with suppliers and making clear our expectations of business partners, evaluating the modern slavery and human trafficking risks of each new supplier &/or invoking sanctions against suppliers that fail to improve their performance in line with an action plan provided by us, including the termination of the business relationship.

Naim Basha - Director

Signed -

March 11, 2024

Company Name	Signed by	Review due date
Wilten Construction Ltd	Naim Basha	11/03/2025